OBJECTIVES

The overall objectives of the Family Service/ERSEA Department is to provide a comprehensive social service program which can assist families in identifying and utilizing their strengths and enable them to make maximum use of the resources within the Head Start Program and Communities. The most useful way to make this information available to families and staff members is by organizing a Family & Community Resource Handbook. The resource handbook provides families with needed information on resources within the communities. The following pages consist of some of the resources that are available to you.
